

SNJ Helpful links.

The SNJ team are all volunteers and we do not provide a support service

However, the links below all have paid specialists who will be able to advise you for free. There are also SEND solicitors available but of course these would charge.

- Please check out Flow Charts <https://www.specialneedsjungle.com/flow-chart/>
- First, you could try Contact A Family's Advice Line <http://www.cafamily.org.uk/advice-and-support/sen-national-advice-service/>
- You can also try your local IASS service who will be able to give you advice. Find your local service here: <http://www.iassnetwork.org.uk/>
- Or, if it's legal help around SEND law, get in touch with IPSEA <http://www.ipsea.org.uk/>
- OR <http://www.sossen.org.uk>
- AUTISM: If your child has autism, the NAS may be able to help: NAS <http://www.autism.org.uk/our-services/advice-and-information-services/education-rights-service.aspx>

In all cases, please tell them you were referred by Special Needs Jungle.

- You will find answers to many questions about SEND in our Ask IPSEA Answers: <https://www.specialneedsjungle.com/ask-ipsea/ipseas-legal-agony-answers/>

- And answers about EHCPs in our former EHCP clinic: <https://www.specialneedsjungle.com/ehcp-transfer-clinic/>
- We also have lots of advice on our Get Started page <https://www.specialneedsjungle.com/get-prepared/>

- If you would like to speak to other local parents who may be able to help you with local help and resources, contact your local Parent Carer Forum. You can find it from this page: <http://www.nnpcf.org.uk/who-we-are/>
